

Dear colleagues

A few weeks have passed since our last spontaneous zoom. After the summer term ended for me last week in Berlin as the first regular term after the pandemic, I am able to report on the further progress of the Bernoulli-Euler Commission.

(1) In May, the Basel meeting took place to clarify the tasks of the three Bernoulli-Euler committees, with a clear division of responsibilities:

- BEK (our Bernoulli-Euler Commission): scholarly tasks, project planning and management, editions, publications, strategy.
- BEG (Bernoulli-Euler Society, members Hanspeter Kraft, Rita Gautschy, Hans-Christoph im Hof, Helmut Harbrecht, Martin Mattmüller): legal representation, financing, publication contracts.
- BEZ (Bernoulli-Euler Centre, Helmut Harbrecht): Institutional arrangements with the University of Basel and the University Library of Basel, research project with the Swiss National Science Foundation.

(2) As a regular meeting of our Bernoulli-Euler Commission I propose a Zoom meeting in the first week of September (4.9-8.9) with an afternoon slot from 15h to 18h CET on one of these days. Please reply to this mail email by sending me the dates that would suit you. In this meeting we will exchange visions about the future of Euler and Bernoulli as landmark editorial projects in the new digital era of Large Language Models and AI.

(3) We have planned a joint meeting with members of the d'Alembert project in Paris on Friday 13 October. We hope that many members of the Bernoulli-Euler Commission will be able to attend. According to your replies, we will look for accommodation arrangements; the costs will be covered by the Bernoulli-Euler Society.

Appendix I: Agenda of the Bernoulli-Euler Commission September 2023
